Day 4 :- Buerjin - Jiadengyu

- Kanas Lake: is a lake in Altay Prefecture, Xinjiang, China. The lake is located in a valley in the Altai Mountains, near the very northern tip of Xinjiang and the autonomous region's borders with Russia, Kazakhstan and Mongolia.
- Moon Bays & Motor Bays: Moon Bay is a bend of the Kanas River that lies upstream from Wolong Bay. As a result of the elevation difference of the lakebed, the changes in upstream water inflow, and the light effect, Moon Bay presents magnificent, changing colors.
- Wolong Bays: is the first stop. This beautiful river bay is said to be looking like a crouching dragon, but some may see it as a gun.
- Tuwa Family: On the south bank of the Kanas Lake is considered by China National Geography Magazine to be one of the six “Most beautiful towns and villages in China.”

Breakfast Lunch Dinner

Day 5 :- Jiadengyu - Hemu Village

- Guaiyu Tower: is an important historical and cultural monument. Its construction dates back to the Tang Dynasty (618–907 AD), making it a significant example of ancient Chinese architecture in the region.
- Hemu Old Village: is one of the three extinct Tuva villages in China. The superb beautiful and serene natural scenery has won it “Paradise for Photography” and “A Private Land of Gods”.

Breakfast Lunch Dinner

Day 6 :- Hemu - Buerjin

Rainbow Beach: also named Multicolored Beach, is about 20 kilometers from the Burqin County. The Erqis River flows through the beach and discharges itself into the Arctic Ocean. It belongs to the Yardan Landform that is formed by the water and wind erosion. The rocks in amazing colors look like bright castles, monsters and peak forests.

Breakfast Lunch Dinner

Day 7 :- Buerjin - Kuitun

Devil City: also known as Wuerhe Wind City, is located at the lower reaches of the Jiamu River on the northwest edge of the Junggar Basin in the Xinjiang Uygur Autonomous Region.

Breakfast Lunch Dinner

Day 8 :- Kuitun - Urumqi

- DUSHANZI CANNY: Stretching 20 kilometers from north to south with a width ranging from 100-400 meters at the bottom and 800-1000 meters at the top, is a natural wonder in Karamay, northwest China's Xinjiang Uygur autonomous region.
