Witness natural wonders, explore man-made marvels and immerse yourself in the culture, history and cuisine of these storied destinations.

Tour Itinerary

Day 1 :- EMBARKATION - Barcelona, Spain

One of Europe's most visually stunning cities, Barcelona balances the medieval intimacy of its Gothic Quarter with the grace and wide boulevards in the Moderniste Eixample. It was the home of architect Antoni Gaudí, whose Sagrada Família Cathedral, Park Güell, and Casa Milà are the most profound statements of Modernisme. View the splendid works at the Picasso Museum and the Miro Foundation, or enjoy Barcelona's passionate ambiance at a flamenco show.

Day 3 :- Seville (Cadiz), Spain

Cádiz, Andalusia's world-renowned capital, has undergone major restoration in recent years. Palm trees, gracious squares, flower-filled streets, and ubiquitous red-tile roofed buildings, and bustling street markets make this a most delightful port. The old town, on the tip of the peninsula, is a maze of narrow streets with beautiful, lively plazas. To get there, you pass through the new town, an elegant metropolis with excellent beaches. Cádiz is also the starting point for a day trip to nearby Seville, where you can visit the Alcazar, a beautiful medieval Islamic palace showcasing a unique blend of Christian and Moorish architecture surrounded by lovely gardens; majestic Seville Cathedral (Catedral de Sevilla); and Giralda Tower. Excellent photo opportunities.

Day 4 :- Cruising the Atlantic Ocean

Tucked away in the Horizon Lounge, Chartreuse is a hidden gem featuring modern French fare with attentive servers and a maître d'. Your dining experience is flawless and accompanied by the finest French wines. Savor 'new' flavors to Chartreuse like frog legs in a cream sauce with rutabaga or bite into the tender veal rack of loin with caramelized endive, grape chutney and the earthy tones of a walnut veal jus.

Day 5 :- Funchal (Madeira), Portugal

Madeira is described as the "Island of Eternal Spring." Entirely volcanic in origin, the soil combines with the mild climate to produce lush green as well as multicolored vegetation. The rugged landscape, scenic fishing villages, magnificent vistas and ideal climate bring this island to life year-round. Before leaving this panoramic Atlantic isle, be sure to sample a glass of the famous Madeira wine.

Day 6 :- Santa Cruz de La Palma, Canary Islands

Discover gorgeous Santa Cruz de La Palma with its colorful buildings, 18th Century mansions, and wrought-iron balconies draped with bougainvillea, dramatic volcanic mountains, and fertile green valleys set amid a pristine turquoise sea. Explore the star-shaped 17th Century Santa Catalina fortress. Then visit the Moorish influenced Iglesia de El Salvador to admire the luminous stained-glass windows. Enjoy O'Daly Street browsing through lovely boutiques, antique and artisan shops. Enjoy a glass of fine Canary Island wine in a jewel-like setting.

Day 7 :- Las Palmas de Gran Canaria, Canary Islands

Discover the seaside sophistication of Las Palmas with its year-round Springtime weather, magnificent beaches, gardens, and stylish architecture. Explore the Plaza de Santa Ana and its 15th Century twin-towered cathedral of the same name. Visit the Casa de Colon mansion where Christopher Columbus allegedly slept during his 1492 voyage. Meander through the Vegueta and Triana old quarters along narrow streets lined with galleries, restaurants, and shops selling good Canarian wine, ron miel (honey rum), and tobacco.

Day 8 :- Arrecife (Lanzarote), Canary Islands

Discover exotic Arrecife with its modern, yet relaxed attitude rising pristine and white against a barren volcanic landscape along a turquoise sea. Visit Timanfaya National Park and marvel at the twisted lava formations and caves. Explore El Charco de San Gines, a salt-water lagoon with colorful fishing boats, surrounded by the white and blue homes of the fishermen. Visit the International Museum of Modern Art housed in the former home of San Jose, and the Archaeological Museum in the Castle San Gabriel. Meander along Calle Leon y Castilla for exceptional souvenir shopping. Look for hand embroidered linens, African carvings, the local Guanches pottery, duty-free perfume and liquor. Enjoy tapas and a glass of wine at one of the seaside cafés in a land of sunshine and siestas.

Day 9 :- Cruising the Atlantic Ocean

At the hub of the ship, our Atrium is an inspiring testament to the grandeur of luxury ocean travel. Center staircases connect conveniently to the social spaces of the Voyager lounge and Casino, as well as Compass Rose on Deck 4. This makes it a natural gathering place, signified by a beautiful compass-shaped tile floor at the landing.

Day 10 :- Portimao, Portugal

Framed by golden sands and impressive cliffs, Portimão offers a relaxing beach getaway for sun-seekers. For lovers of history and culture, stroll through the medieval Castle of Alvor, and for those that enjoy the beauty of nature delight in the cultivated fields and slopes covered in wildflowers. Visit the Igreja da Nossa Senhora da Conceição that dates back to the 14th century. After a devastating earthquake in 1755, an altar made from walnut wood and the interior walls that feature religious depictions in azulejos tiles. Bring home traditional lace, cork, and baskets.

Day 11 :- Disembarkation - Lisbon, Portugal

Legend states that Ulysses founded Lisbon, calling it Olisipo. Others claim that the name is Phoenician, but all agree it's one of Europe's most fascinating destinations. On All Saints' Day in 1755 a devastating earthquake destroyed much of the city. The Baixa (Lower City) was rebuilt in neo-classical lines that still form the heart of the city. The elegant 'City of Explorers' overlooks the River Tagus, and offers a number of neighborhoods to discover. Tour the Alfama, where the winding streets still retain much of their Moorish atmosphere. Stroll to Bairro Alto to hear the melodious sounds of Portugal's Fado music. Nearby excursions transport you to the lavish 18th-century palace of Queluz and Sintra.
